About

With 14+ years in digital product design, I've crafted solutions that power startups and streamline enterprises. Today I drive the AI design strategy at PandaDoc — shaping how documents get created, negotiated, and signed in the age of AI. My role is pivotal in connecting dots between teams, optimizing product development, and ensuring projects meet the envisioned goals.

Experience

PandaDoc
Staff Product Designer
Feb 2025 — Current

Drive the AI design strategy for the document platform — anticipating trends in generative document creation, model training, and metadata, and turning research into shipped AI experiences people trust.
